Arizona Revised Statutes ("A.R.S.") 41-1030(B) states that "[a]n agency shall not base a licensing decision in whole or in part on a licensing requirement or condition that is not specifically authorized by statute, rule or state tribal gaming compact. A general grant of authority in statute does not constitute a basis for imposing a licensing requirement or condition unless a rule is made pursuant to that general grant of authority that specifically authorizes the requirement or condition."

A.R.S. 41-1030(D) states that "[t]his section may be enforced in a private civil action and relief may be awarded against the state. The court may award reasonable attorney fees, damages and all fees associated with the license application to a party that prevails in an action against the state for a violation of this section." A.R.S. 41-1030(E) states that "[a] state employee may not intentionally or knowingly violate this section. A violation of this section is cause for disciplinary action or dismissal pursuant to the Agency's adopted personnel policy."

A.R.S. 41-1030(F) states that "[t]his section does not abrogate the immunity provided by section 12-820.01 or 12-820.02."

Pursuant to section 41-1093.01, Arizona Revised Statutes, an agency shall limit all occupational regulation to regulations that are demonstrated to be necessary to specifically fulfill a public health, safety or welfare concern. Pursuant to sections 41-1093.02 and 41-1093.03, Arizona Revised Statutes, you have the right to petition this agency to repeal or modify the occupational regulation or bring an action in court of general jurisdiction to challenge the occupational regulation and to ensure compliance with section 41-1093.01, Arizona Revised Statutes.

Pursuant to Section 32-4302, Arizona Revised Statutes, a person shall be granted an occupational or professional license or certificate if the person has been licensed or certified in another state for at least twelve months, the license or certificate is in the same discipline and at the same practice level as the license or certificate for which the person is applying in this state and the person meets other conditions prescribed by Section 32-4302, Arizona Revised Statutes.

GENERAL CONSIDERATIONS

Reasons to Close an Application

- A. An Applicant under ARS § 32-4302 must provide the above documentation as determined by the Board. If the applicant fails to submit a complete application within 90 days, the application will be closed as per A.A.C. R4-30-209.
- B. If an applicant has a disciplinary action in another jurisdiction that has not been resolved within 90 days of submission of the application, the application will be closed as per A.A.C. R4-30-209.
- C. If the applicant has a complaint, allegation or investigation in any jurisdiction that has not been resolved within 90 days the application will be closed as per AAC R4-30-209.

Disqualification for License Application under 32-4302

- D. The applicant has had a license revoked or surrendered in another jurisdiction.
- E. The applicant was not required to meet a minimum standard for education in the original state of licensure.
- F. Persons licensed through a “grandfather” clause that waived the jurisdictions minimum standards do not qualify under 32-4302.

Complete Application

- G. If an Applicant submits a complete application under ARS § 32-4302, the application must be placed on the next Board agenda for determination on whether the license from another state used for application meets the same practice level as the Arizona license. Only the Board can determine if the same practice level requirement has been met. The Board will also consider other applicable application merits, such as discipline in another jurisdiction or criminal history.

Same Discipline/Practice Level

- H. If a license for a discipline in another state does not have the same scope of practice as the Arizona license, that license will not be equivalent or determined to be the “same practice level” and cannot be used to obtain a license through ARS § 32-4302.
- I. “Same discipline” includes any branch of engineering in AZ law. If an engineer has a license in a branch of engineering not recognized by AZ law, the applicant will not qualify for application under ARS § 32-4302.
- J. An applicant for a structural engineer license must possess a structural engineer license in another jurisdiction that qualifies the applicant to practice at the same level as an AZ structural engineering license. An alternate engineering discipline, such as a Civil PE, will not qualify for a license pursuant to ARS § 32-4302 for an Arizona structural engineer license.
- K. “Same discipline” means the license held by the applicant in another jurisdiction must be one of the following:
  - Architect
  - Landscape Architect
  - Geologist (Must hold a license in one of the 31 states requiring registration to practice)
  - Land Surveyor
  - Home Inspector
  - Agricultural Engineer
  - Architectural Engineer (cannot be used to obtain an Architect license)
  - Chemical Engineer
  - Civil Engineer (cannot be used to obtain a Structural Engineer license)
  - Control Systems Engineer
  - Electrical Engineer
  - Environmental Engineer
  - Fire Protection Engineer
  - Geological Engineer
  - Industrial Engineer
  - Industrial Engineer
  - Mechanical Engineer
  - Metallurgical Engineer

  - Sanitary Engineer
  - Structural Engineer
  - Any other license must be reviewed by the Board to determine “same practice level”.
- L. A person who does not qualify for a license under ARS § 32-4302 can apply for a license under Title 32 Chapter 1. An applicant must pay the applicable fee for each application submitted and qualify for those requirements enumerated.

d. Derivative Citizenship

If the applicant cannot present one of the documents listed in a or b above, the following may be used to make determination of derivative U.S. citizenship:

Applicant born abroad to two U.S. citizen parents: Evidence of the U.S. citizenship of the parents and the relationship of the applicant to the parents, and evidence that at least one parent resided in the U.S. or an outlying possession prior to the applicant's birth.

Applicant born abroad to a U.S. citizen parent and a U.S. non-citizen national parent: Evidence that one parent is a U.S. citizen and that the other is a U.S. non-citizen national, evidence of the relationship of the applicant to the U.S. citizen parent, and evidence that the U.S. citizen parent resided in the U.S., a U.S. possession, American Samoa or Swain's Island for a period of at least one year prior to the applicant's birth.

Applicant born out of wedlock abroad to a U.S. citizen mother: Evidence of the U.S. citizenship of the mother, evidence of the relationship to the applicant and, for births on or before December 24, 1952, evidence that the mother resided in the U.S. prior to the applicant's birth or, for births after December 24, 1952, evidence that the mother had resided, prior to the child's birth, in the U.S. or a U.S. possession for a period of one year.

Applicant born in the Canal Zone or the Republic of Panama:

In all other situations in which an applicant claims to have a U.S. citizen parent and an alien parent, or claims to fall within one of the above categories, but is unable to present the listed documentation:

- If the applicant is in the U.S., the applicant should contact the local U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Service office for determination of U.S. citizenship;
- If the applicant is outside the U.S., the applicant should contact the State Department for a U.S. citizenship determination.

e. Adoption of Foreign-Born Child by U.S. Citizen

- If the birth certificate shows a foreign place of birth and the applicant cannot be determined to be a naturalized citizen under any of the above criteria, obtain other evidence of U.S. citizenship;
- Because foreign-born adopted children do not automatically acquire U.S. citizenship by virtue of adoption by U.S. citizens, the applicant should contact the local U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Service office for a determination of U.S. citizenship, if the applicant provides no evidence of U.S. citizenship.

- f. U.S. Citizenship By Marriage
 A woman acquired U.S. citizenship through marriage to a U.S. citizen before September 22, 1922. Provide evidence of U.S. citizenship of the husband, and evidence showing the marriage occurred before September 22, 1922.

If the marriage terminated, the wife maintained her U.S. citizenship if she was residing in the U.S. at that time and continued to reside in the U.S.
- g. A U.S. certificate of birth abroad*
 h. A foreign passport with a U.S. Visa*
